HELLO!

Be it listening to music, enthusing over a play, tucking into a tasty book or getting out there dancing – we often find it's the arts that we turn to to express ourselves: our thoughts, our passions, our sense of humour. This season we really celebrate the fact that you are never too young, too old, or too middle aged in fact, to discover, uncover or unleash your love of all things creative.

For little people we have a fantastic range of the most magical early-years shows including: Lightstream, an interactive light project co-directed by Richard Tomlinson and Jo Belloli (p.7), and the totally magical Mr and Mrs Sommerflügel (p.16) – one of Europe's top early-years circus shows. Expect goldfish swimming from suitcases and butterflies floating out of hats, and, most importantly, expect giggles aplenty!

We're also really excited about some new and returning companies that are set to take to the Tacchi-Morris stage: Mark Bruce Company presents Made in Heaven (p.11) – theatrical dance at its very best; Bristol Old Vic Theatre School woo us with another West Country classic in Cold Comfort Farm (p.8); and hurtling onto the stage are So & So Circus Theatre (p.5) who present a full-length live acrobatic performance in Backgammon for Beginners... and that's without even mentioning The SPACE Company's version of The Wiz (p.21).

Our range of community classes (p.12-15) and exhibitions continue apace and this season we also offer numerous free events including: our celebrated Open Mic Night (p.7), an opportunity to try out Creative Speed Dating (p.3), the return of the Page is Printed creative writing competition and spoken-word Open Mic Night sponsored by Waterstones (p.20), and a wonderful free jubilee cream tea open to residents of elderly homes across the county.

So come along and join the fun.

We look forward to seeing you very soon.

Best wishes,

Louise Lappin-Cook, Director

So & So Circus Theatre presents Backgammon for Beginners

Wed 9th May, 8pm

November 1976. A military jet arrives in London and a bemused looking Iranian man in flares steps onto the tarmac. He holds a single suitcase and blinks in this new land.

Over the next few years his attempts to comprehend the differences between his past and his present will lead to jumping out of hotel windows, introducing backgammon to London bars, facing the terror of the National Front and stopping trains with his bare hands. It will also lead to broken hearts, secret loves and multiple children.

Fusing breathtaking acrobatics, drama, live music and puppetry, So & So Circus tells the true story of this extraordinary man and a life lived without a safety net. Recommended for those aged 16+.

Tickets: £10 / £9 Concs. / £5 Students

Celebrating Somerset: Lightstream

Mon 14th May, 10am & 1pm

An interactive light-inspired performance made especially for young children.

It's a lovely sunny morning but our friend Shimmer doesn't want to come out and play. He's waving at us from his bedroom window. If Shimmer came out he'd have brilliant fun in the Lightstream. There are big lights and tiny lights, lights that glow and lights that move. Even some noisy lights!

Lightstream is the gentle and illuminating story of Shimmer's little adventure with unpredictable, and sometimes mischievous, lights, featuring live performance, music and projections. Co-directed by Richard Tomlinson and Jo Belloli and produced by Take Art, Lightstream is part of the Arts Council England funded Light Waves project.

For accompanied children 2-5 years old. Performance time 45mins followed by a snack and a chance to explore the installation.

Tickets: £4 per person

Bristol Old Vic Theatre School presents
Gold Comfort Farm
Sat 19th May, 7:30pm

Stella Gibbons' Gold Comfort Farm is a well-loved comic English novel, parodying as it does the romantic stories of D H Lawrence and Mary Webb. Paul Doust's hilarious stage adaptation draws you into a world where there's something nasty in the woodshed, and where porridge pulsates with the latent lust of rural romance.

Who can fail to enjoy meeting the likes of evil old aunt Ada Doom, the fey Elfine and the smouldering Seth. Directed by Christopher Scott, Bristol Old Vic Theatre School brings you the "Stars of Tomorrow in a Play for Today."

'A stunning piece of work'

What's On Stage (on Love and War)

'A compelling evening of dance theatre'

The Guardian (on Sea of Bones)

Made in Heaven

Tues 12th June, 7:30pm

Following the critically acclaimed Love and War and Sea of Bones, the Mark Bruce Company presents its new, savagely beautiful dance theatre production Made in Heaven in association with the Tobacco Factory Theatre.

Merging ancient themes with the dystopia of contemporary life, Mark Bruce creates a surreal world ruled by a blinded cop and a malicious virgin, where a prairie girl dreams of other lives, and a chain-gang dances on the edge of an inferno.

With music ranging from Debussy and Leadbelly to Queens of the Stone Age and The Black Keys, this dark, sometimes comic piece interrogates the very idea of heaven.

Mark Bruce has choreographed, directed and danced internationally for over twenty years. His work includes collaborations with Bern Ballet, Rosas, PJ Harvey, Probe, Introdans, Djazzex, and Royal Exchange Theatre. Age guidance: 13+.

Tickets: £9 / £8 Concs. / £5 Students
